EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Bankruptcy Retainer AgreementOur Law Firm is a Debt Relief Agency, we help people file for Bankruptcy Relief under the Bankruptcy Code

In consideration for services to be rendered to Cedric Walton Clients ("Client") by Attorney William D. Lohrman ("Attorney") located at 55 South Main Street, Suite 359, Naperville, Illinois 60540, in connection with representing Client regarding bankruptcy matters, Client, jointly and severally agrees to pay Attorney as follows:

1. A total amount of $ 1150.00 is required to be paid for representation in Client bankruptcy case. An additional $335.00 is to be paid by Client for the Court filing fee of the bankruptcy petition.

A retainer of $ 200.00 was paid on 1-16-14, 2014. A retainer is an advance payment for Attorney services and the expenses Attorney may incur on Client's behalf and does not cover the court filing fee. Client understands that such amount will be credited against any amount Client owes Attorney and will not be refunded regardless if Client decides to cancel filing of the bankruptcy petition or not.

Client understands that if any check given in payment to Attorney is returned for insufficient funds, Client agrees to immediately pay Attorney a $40.00 fee in addition to the amount of the returned check. This payment and any future payments must therefore be made in cash, money order or debit card.

2. Attorney reserves the right to withdraw from Client representation if, among other things, Client fails to honor the terms of this Agreement, including non-payment of Attorney and Court filing fees; Client fails to cooperate or follow advice on a material matter or if any fact or circumstance arises or is discovered that would render continuing representation unlawful or unethical. Client is aware of an ethical requirement imposed upon all Attorneys in this state. If a Client, in the course of representation by an Attorney, perpetrates a fraud upon any person or tribunal, the Attorney is obligated to call upon the Client to rectify same. If the Client refuses or is unable to do so, the Attorney is required to reveal the fraud to the affected person or tribunal.

3. Since the outcome of negotiations and litigation is subject to factors which cannot always be foreseen, Client acknowledges and understands that Attorney has made no promises or guarantees to Client concerning the outcome and is unable to do so. Nothing in this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee.

4. Client agrees that Attorney may discard Client records within five (5) years of the completion of Client's bankruptcy case.

5. Attorney shall provide Client with the following services:

- a. Review and analyze Client's financial circumstances based on information provided by Client.
 - b. If possible and to the extent possible, based on the information provided by Client, advise Client of the Client's options, including but not limited to bankruptcy options.
 - c. Inform Client what information Client needs to provide Attorney in order to allow Attorney to provide appropriate advice and option information, in the event such information Client provided is insufficient.
 - d. Advise Client of the appropriate requirements in connection with the filing of a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 bankruptcy including the duties of Client connected with such filing.
 - e. Quote the Client an estimated fee, to the extent possible given the information provided by Client, for the Attorney's service relative to providing bankruptcy assistance or other legal services to Client.
 - f. Assuming that a U.S. Bankruptcy proceeding is filed, Attorney services will include all typical attorney required participation in such proceeding, including but not limited to, appearances at Court hearings, preparation of legal memoranda, and communication with opposing counsel and parties.
 - g. If Client's proceeding requires additional, but not customary work, Attorney will inform Client directly, and enter into a separate written contract for such services to fully apprise Client of the fees, payment requirements, and expected services to be provided.
6. Client acknowledges his/her obligation to make full and complete disclosure of all assets and all liabilities and to provide all documents and information requested by the Attorney, before a bankruptcy petition can be prepared and filed with the Court.
7. Client acknowledges that he/she must attend pre-petition credit counseling before the bankruptcy petition can be filed. Client understands that he/she must also attend post-petition counseling after the bankruptcy petition is filed and within the time frame allowed by statute. Client acknowledges that the bankruptcy cannot be filed without the certificate of completion of the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling. Client understands that no discharge of debts will be issued if the post-bankruptcy credit counseling is not completed within the statutory time frame.
8. Client acknowledges that Attorney does not represent Client in any other type of case, lawsuit or proceeding other than Client's bankruptcy case. The Attorney may make a special appearance in a Court, other than the Bankruptcy Court, for the purpose of filing a notification of Client's bankruptcy proceedings, and to suggest to another Court that Client's proceedings should be stayed. Sending or receiving any summons or complaint, or notifying the Attorney of a pending lawsuit does not obligate the Attorney to represent Client in that lawsuit or before that Court. Any representation of Client in a state Court proceeding, including without limitation: collection lawsuits, foreclosure lawsuits, and etc. is not included in this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement. Any referral made to another Attorney to represent Client is a courtesy only. The Attorney is not associated with any other Attorney outside of the undersigned Attorney's law offices.

9. Client acknowledges that the Attorney will not research creditor information, including addresses, account numbers, or balances. The Client must provide this information to the Attorney in writing. Failure to do so may result in unscheduled debts subject to non-dischargeability.

10. Client agrees that the following matters are not included within the scope of this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement. Client agrees that, as to the matters listed below, the Attorney will not take any action on Client's behalf, without a written request and/or a separate Retainer Agreement and possibly an additional retainer:

- a. Motions to revoke a discharge.
- b. Removal of a pending action in another Court.
- c. Obtaining title reports.
- d. The determination of real estate or tax liens.
- e. Appeals to the BAP, District Court or Court of Appeals.
- f. Correcting credit reports.
- g. Negotiations with Check Systems regarding Client.
- h. Any adversary proceeding filed by the Trustee, U.S. Trustee, or any other party on any basis including, without limitations, proceedings to determine dischargeability of debits.
- i. Preparing reaffirmation agreements, negotiating the terms of reaffirmation agreements proposed by creditors, motions to redeem personal property and negotiating reaffirmation agreements when Client's income is not sufficient to rebut the presumption of undue hardship and special circumstances do not warrant the signing of a reaffirmation agreement.
- j. Motion to impose or extend the bankruptcy stay.
- k. Motions to reopen the bankruptcy case including but not limited to: adding creditors or to file post filing bankruptcy credit counseling in order to receive discharge.

11. Client understands that certain debts cannot be discharged in bankruptcy. Client agrees that Client is still liable to repay any debt not discharged in Client's bankruptcy. Client understands that the debts listed below are common examples of the types of debts that cannot be discharged in bankruptcy. Client further understands that the list of non-dischargeable debts may be expanded by legislation or Court decisions and Attorney has no control over the type of debts that may be or become non-dischargeable.

- a. Certain types of taxes, custom duties, or debts to pay taxes or custom duties.
- b. Student loans.
- c. Debts owed for spousal or child support.
- d. Debts owed to the spouse, former spouse, or child in a domestic relations proceeding.
- e. Debts arising from a previous bankruptcy wherein discharge of that particular debt was waived.
- f. Debts owed for money, property, services, extension-or-removal, or refinancing of credit, if obtained by false pretenses, or false representations, or actual fraud.
- g. Consumer debts for luxury goods obtained within ninety (90) days of the date of filing of the bankruptcy petition.

- h. Cash advances obtained within seventy (70) days of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition.
 - i. Debts owed for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, or embezzlement or larceny.
 - j. Debts owed for fines penalties, or forfeitures payable to and for the benefit of governmental entity.
 - k. Debts owed for death or personal injury arising from the operating of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft while intoxicated by drugs or alcohol.
12. Client understands that filing bankruptcy does not automatically discharge or remove liens from any real estate. Client agrees that the Attorney will not take any action to avoid (remove) any lien on real estate unless Client specifically authorizes the Attorney to do so in writing. Client agrees that the Attorney will rely on Client's statements concerning ownership of real property and any liens attached to Client's real property. Client agrees that no real estate title search will be conducted. Client agrees that Attorney will not conduct a public records search for lawsuits filed against Client or judgments granted against Client. Client must separately order and pay for a real estate title search, or public records search for lawsuits or judgments, if Clients wishes to obtain one. Client agrees to hold the Attorney harmless if client later discovers liens, lawsuits or judgments against Client or against Client's real estate.
13. Client understands that individuals who file for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code are subject to audits by the U.S. Trustee. If Client's case is selected for an audit, Client agrees to pay Attorney the customary hourly rate for representing Client in such audit.
14. Client understands that Attorney may charge additional fees if Client waits longer than ninety (90) days from the first date Attorney is retained to finalize the bankruptcy petition and schedules due to additional due diligence and other update work required to finalize the bankruptcy.
15. Client acknowledges that Client has read and understands all the terms contained in this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement and that whether written, spoken, recorded or transcribed by any other means, no other terms are made part of this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement. Client is in agreement with the terms of this Agreement and has signed on the signature lines below. Client further acknowledges that Client has received a copy of this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
